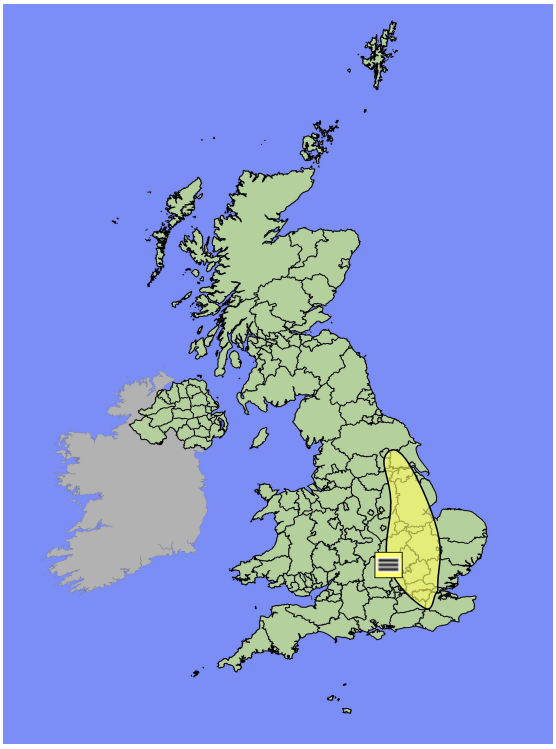
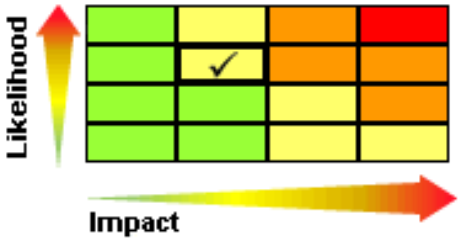
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Widespread visibilities of 100 metres or less are making for poor conditions over a large area this morning, with only slow improvements expected. A few parts may keep poor visibilities beyond the warning period.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Fog

Valid from 08:00 on Sun, 20th Nov 2011 until 11:00 on Sun, 20th Nov 2011

The public should be aware that areas of dense fog will persist for some time yet across parts of eastern England, slowly thinning later this morning.

This will make for difficult driving conditions in places and the public are advised to take extra care.
